STUDENTS AGAINST DRINKING AND DRIVING SASKATCHEWAN

SADD GOES WESTERN

PROVINCIAL CONFERENCE
OCTOBER 17-18, 2008
Regina Inn, Regina

Board members, l to r:
Sean Seyneka, Chellan Langley, Jerry Larson

SADD Saskatchewan's 2008 Provincial Conference was another rip-roaring success. Chapters from 43 schools sent 266 delegates to Regina to take part in workshops and the awards presentations.

Cara Filler spoke to the delegates about her experience in watching her identical twin sister die in a car crash at the age of 18. She made important statements regarding peer pressure, risk-taking and traffic safety.

Cara and Mairin

Cheryl Dupuis spoke about the death of her youngest daughter, Danae, who lost her life while riding with an impaired driver.

Danae

Mark Brayford spoke about the legal consequences of driving impaired.

Note: Due to CYAID 2010 being held in Regina, there will be no Provincial Conference in 2009.
